

Grant Thornton firms around the world can help your business grow. This profile sheet is produced to provide you with information on the services available in Chile, from ...

Surlatina Auditores Ltda.

Member of Grant Thornton International Ltd

Managing Partner

Ricardo Sánchez

International Practice Director

Alfonso Ibáñez

Alfredo Barros Errázuriz 1954, Piso 18

Santiago, Chile

T 56-2-651 3000

E gtchile@gtchile.cl

W www.gtchile.cl

The services that Surlatina Auditores Ltda. – Member of Grant Thornton International Ltd is rendered with the highest quality and with personalized attention, in order to answer all the specific needs of each one of our clients.

In our company we are committed to provide services with the highest standards of operation, such as professional quality, experience, personal and team commitment; having always an effective communication with owners and management.

Our Firm offers the following professional services:

Assurance services

It is a significant area of the services provided by our Firm, we help our clients to present truthful and timely financial statements, in order to partners and investors are able to make right decisions.

The assurance services rendered are:

- audit to the financial statements
- limited review to the financial statements
- evaluation of internal control system
- operating and management audit
- due diligence services
- advisory services to initial public offerings
- IFRS norms advisory

Tax services

Chile is a country with complex tax laws; as a consequence, fiscal planning is a very important issue for the management of any company. Our tax professionals evaluate the opportunities available in order to obtain fiscal savings and develop the best strategies for both national and international areas, if corresponds.

We render a great variety of services in this area, highlighting: integral tax planning, consultancy in local tax matters, international taxes, transferring pricing, tax due diligence, tax analysis and training and seminars.

Outsourcing

This area is focused on those companies, either national or international, that have decided to delegate administrative matters and financial functions to specialists.

We render the following services: support in the establishment of new business, register them with the corresponding authorities accounting and payroll processing and supervision, preparation of tax filings, training and recruitment of personnel and internal audit.

Consultancy in IT services and process.

Advisory of design and implement solutions using technology information, in order to generate added value to our clients.

Ours services in this area are the followings:

- Advisory of strategic planning
- Advisory of technology plan's design and elaboration
- Advisory of informatics' projects design and development
- Advisory Technological tool's selection
- Advisory Critical procedure of business review

Human resources services (Human Capital)

The companies and their personnel need to be always updated. We have experts to help our clients to handle the change, applying tested techniques in accordance with the need of each company.

We have the following services:

- personnel recruitment
- training
- performance evaluation

We have more than 35 years of experience assisting personally our clients in Chile, especially to those companies managed by its partners and companies operating under the supervision of external entities.

2008

© Surlatina Auditores Ltda. – Member of Grant Thornton International Ltd
www.gtchile.cl

Surlatina Auditores Ltda. is a member firm of Grant Thornton International, one of the global leaders accounting, tax and business advisory organization, with an independently owned and managed. The member firms provide audit services, tax services and specialty advisory in 110 countries and more than 520 offices around the world.